

Rules for the Silent Disco event during the 27th International Theatre Festival Kontakt on June 3, 2023:

1. Participation in the event and signing up on the participants' list implies the simultaneous acceptance of these rules.
2. Each participant is required to present any form of identification with a photo and sign the participants' list in order to borrow headphones. These actions will be considered as entering into a rental agreement for the duration of the event with the Wejściówka Club-Café. The personal data obtained in this way (First Name, Last Name, ID number, or personal identification number) will be used solely to confirm the participant's identity when entering into the aforementioned agreement and will be destroyed immediately after the event ends.
3. The organizer or their representative declares that they will properly secure the personal data found on the attached participants' list during the event.
4. From the moment of receiving the Silent Disco headphones (signing the list), the participant is fully responsible for them. The costs of loss or damage to the headphones are determined by the following price list, and in the event of causing damage, the participant agrees to cover the following costs:
5. Loss or intentional, permanent, complete destruction of the headphones, rendering repair or replacement impossible - 150.00 PLN gross per unit.
Other partial, removable damages to individual components - 50.00 PLN gross per unit.
Loss of the headphone sponge - 5.00 PLN gross per unit.
Minor damages such as scratches and abrasions are acceptable.
6. The Silent Disco headphones have been thoroughly disinfected, and for hygienic reasons, it is forbidden to pass the headphones to third parties.
7. Leaving the event area without returning the headphones beforehand is prohibited. Individuals under the influence of alcohol or drugs, displaying aggression or uncivil behavior, may be refused headphone rental and may be removed from the event.
8. Participants in the event give their consent for the free distribution of their image recorded during the event by Lucas Silent Disco for marketing purposes. The consent is granted indefinitely and without territorial limitations. The consent also includes the distribution of the image by third parties within the scope of broadcasting and public playback of marketing materials, reports, and information related to the event.
9. The cost of renting the headphones is 10 PLN, payable once before entering the club-café.
